

Books

There are quite a few books available in the disaster field, many of them gripping stories of past catastrophic events that most of us have forgotten or were not even aware of. All make for good reading in a well-prepared household. Suggestions for additional titles are welcome.

The Unthinkable

Emergency Food Storage

Organize for Disaster

Resiliency in the Face of Disaster

Preparing for the Worst

When all Hell Breaks Loose

The Politics of Disaster

The Edge of Disaster

Public Health Consequences

Path of Destruction

Hurricane Katrina

The Great Deluge

[Heat Wave:
Disaster in Chicago](#)

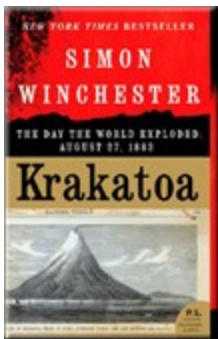

[Great Earthquake
of 1906](#)

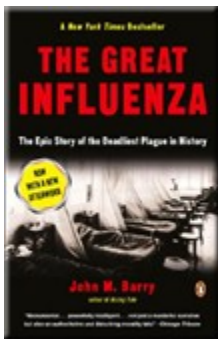

[San Francisco
Is Burning](#)

Krakatoa: When the World Exploded

The Great Influenza

America's Forgotten Pandemic

The Johnstown Flood

Great Hurricane: 1938

Sudden Sea: the Great Hurricane

The White Cascade

The Storm: What Went Wrong

Storm of the Century

Earthquakes in Human History

Leading People Through Disasters

Predictable Surprises

Tragedies of American History

Flu - The 1918 Great Influenza Pandemic

Breach of Faith

